£107,000 granted for skatepark in Watton

After five years of campaigns, petitions, meetings and consultations, Breckland YAB are thrilled to announce that Watton will get a skatepark.

In 2017 young people from Watton approached Breckland YAB and asked if they could help them get a skatepark in Watton. The YAB undertook a consultation with the support from the Senior leadership team at Wayland Academy the YAB was able to speak with hundreds of the town's young

BRECKLAND & WEST NORFOLK

The Association of Young People's Mental Health Inquiry

Young Commissioners from Breckland and West Norfolk were thrilled to attend the Association for Young People's Mental Health (AYPH) Inquiry in Euston, London for the day in December 2022. The main purpose of the visit was for young people to have their voice heard, contribute to discussions with other youth groups in attendance and find out more about the impact of climate change on young people's mental health.

The AYPH Youth Advisory Panel is currently leading an Inquiry into how climate change is affecting young people's health in the UK. They have been collecting evidence from young people all over the country and presented their findings at the event. Young people heard from experts in health, education, policy and voluntary sectors. They spent the afternoon working together to develop recommendations on how to build resilient communities in the face of climate change. Young commissioners enjoyed the event and came back with lots of ideas for their own climate change work.

Disability Campaign: All-Inclusive Parks for Young People

Breckland and West Norfolk are continuing work on their Disability Campaign to have all-inclusive play equipment fitted to parks. Breckland County Council have said that moving forward they will be thinking about and making sure that there is some all-inclusive play equipment in their parks, and are unsure as to why this hasn't been done previously. We continue to work hard and collect research.

Young commissioners and students from the College of West Anglia have had a healthy competition on logo designs to represent the campaign and have received many fantastic entries showing all the creative and artistic talents. The winner was Alana Reynolds from Breckland Youth Advisory Board.

WEST NORFOLK

Four West Norfolk Young Commissioners attended the King's Lynn Town Council Meeting in January to present their PowerPoint which included a recent piece of research in the local King's Lynn area, which asked about inclusive equipment in The Walks. They discussed the importance of this type of equipment to families and young people's lives and gave suggestions on the different types of equipment they would like to see in the park. They discussed their recent research and findings, along with ideas of equipment that they would like to see in The Walks.

The feedback received from the Councillors was very positive and they were impressed at the findings of their research and persistence in making this change in their local area.

Meadow of Hope

West Norfolk YAB have commissioned Blackfield Creatives to work with young people to create a meadow of flowers made from single use plastics which will be displayed across West Norfolk. Young Commissioners have been working closely with Blackfield Creatives to make these flowers and create a workshop video so that young people can also make them at home, school, or at a youth group.

The YAB also attended a Downham Market Town Council Meeting to talk about this project and gain permission to have the flowers displayed in their town.

The Council were very impressed with the young commissioners and were happy to have these flowers exhibited. These flowers will be displayed later in the summer to raise awareness of recycling and protecting the environment.

GREAT YARMOUTH

Diversity Training

This month, Great Yarmouth Young Commissioners took part in Diversity Training delivered by ASD Helping Hands. A fun and interactive session, which one Young Commissioner said was the best training for neurodiversity they had been on!

Norfolk County Council - Youth Voice Event

Great Yarmouth YAB attended NCC's Youth Voice event in February along with Broadland, Breckland, and West Norfolk YAB. There were numerous workshops throughout the day, which included the starting ideas for a FLOURISH animation and a Less Stress workshop based around Mindfulness and Relaxation. The mindfulness session was so relaxing that some young commissioners even fell asleep!

NORTH NORFOLK

North Norfolk YAB have been working hard commissioning a wide range of projects to help improve the lives of young people across North Norfolk.

Here's an overview of some of the services we have fully or partly commissioned recently:

Friday night open-access Youth Group in Sheringham:

Run in conjunction with Sheringham Town Council and the YMCA. The group regularly has around 20 people attending each week and continues to grow in popularity!

Self-defense classes at Fakenham Academy:

Starting after February half-term. There will be two six-week courses training young people in Krav Maga. This suggestion originally came from our lunchtime YAG at Fakenham Academy to support our anti-bullying priority. Young people said they wanted to learn a physical skill to keep them safe and help them to feel confident.

A Cultural Crafts programme in North Walsham:

We are funding six young-people-only craft sessions which are completely free to attend. These will include silversmithing, candle making and scrapbooking, amongst many other crafts.

BROADLAND

Healthier Sheringham:

On Saturday 18th February, Young Commissioners attended a Healthier Sheringham event at The Lighthouse in Sheringham to help promote the work of the YAB. We made lots of connections with other local organisations, and learnt lots about what support is on offer in Sheringham to support young people with their health in every sense, mentally and physically! It was a fantastic event, opened by Sir Norman Lamb, and was a great opportunity to find out more about other groups and organisations in the area. Some of us even had the opportunity to learn a new skill with some brass instruments!

Broadland YAB visited Broadland District Council to learn more about the role of the council in the local community. Young people met with staff from a range of teams and learned about waste management, recycling, recruitment, and housing, support for residents and lots more. It was a great learning opportunity for the young people and there was plenty of time to ask questions to further their understanding.

Norfolk County Council – Youth Voice Event

Broadland YAB also attended Norfolk County Council's Youth Voice Event and had a fantastic day!

LEARNING NEW SKILLS AT

MAKING ZINES AT NORWICH LIBRARY!

Zine-Making Workshop

Young Commissioners had a great time attending Norwich Millennium Library's monthly zine-making workshop.

Mental Health Awareness Training

Broadland YAB joined forces with Norwich YAB to spend a day learning about mental health, which included what they can do to look after their own mental health but also how they can support their friends. They finished the day playing games and making glitter jars, both of which are great activities for their wellbeing.

SOUTH NORFOLK

South Norfolk YAB ended 2022 with their Christmas Intergenerational Project. Young people came together, to cook a festive meal, make and wrap gifts, and entertain older members of the community. It was a great success and young people said:

"IT WAS REALLY FUN TO SOCIALISE WITH PEOPLE THAT YOU MIGHT NOT GET TO SPEAK TO EVERY DAY."

A group also attended the Pantomime in Norwich, enjoying a production of Jack and The Beanstalk, and really getting into the Christmas spirit!

Clinks Care Farm

Young people have been able to access the SNYAB projects - tending animals at Clinks Care Farm; carrying out conservation work at Quaker Wood; and looking after themselves at Wellbeing and Social Sessions.

"CLINKS FARM HELPS YOU BUILD SKILLS FOR WORK. IF YOUNG PEOPLE WITNESS VOLUNTEERS WORKING AT CLINKS, THEY MIGHT BUILD CONFIDENCE TO BECOME INVOLVED THEMSELVES. IT ALLOWS YOUNG PEOPLE TO BROADEN THEIR HORIZONS ABOUT WHAT CAN BE POSSIBLE AFTER SCHOOL."

NCC Participation Day

Young Commissioners had a busy half term with some attending the NCC Participation Day: With the Ormiston Families' "Breaking Barriers" Workshop.

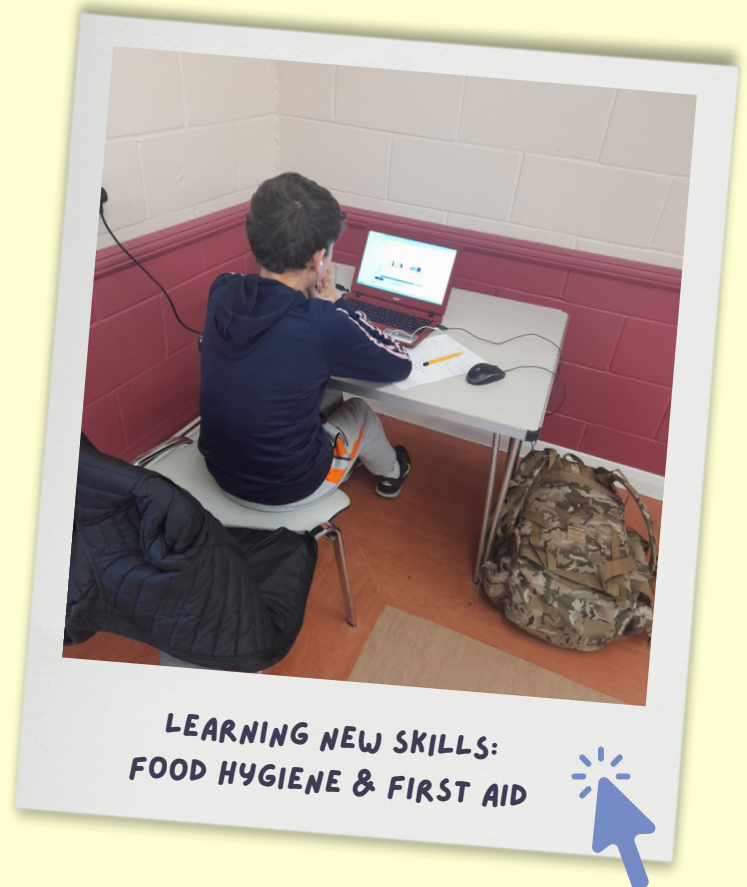

"IT WAS INTERESTING TO LEARN ABOUT THE PRISONS. I FOUND OUT THAT CHILDREN AND YOUNG PEOPLE CAN GO AND VISIT FAMILY MEMBERS, AND PRISONS ARE BIGGER THAN PEOPLE MIGHT THINK."

New Skills & Qualifications!

Young people have also been achieving qualifications! One group all passed their First Aid, and one group gained their Food Hygiene Certificate. Both had a great time, and felt that "it was fun, entertaining, and useful." Congratulations to you all!

We are looking forward to our next Intergenerational event at Easter, and some follow up cooking courses, for those who have completed their Food Hygiene.

Houses of Parliament Visit

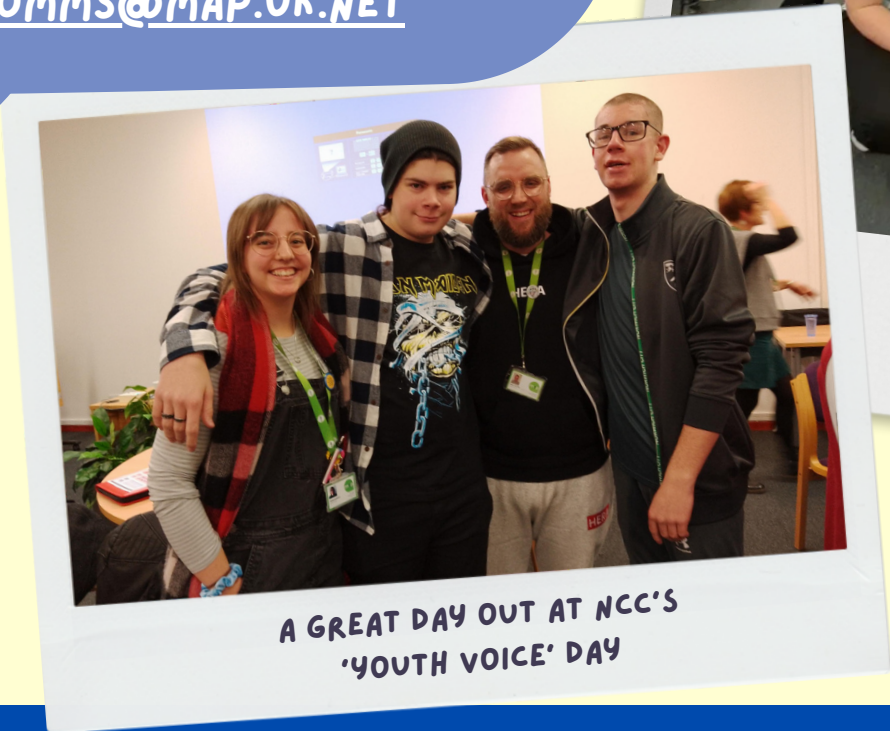

Some Young Commissioners, who are also Young Carers, attended a residential in London with other young people from the Norfolk Young Carers Forum. They visited the Houses of Parliament, which really helped them to understand where their hard work fits in to influence national policy. The trip also included going to the theatre to see Mamma Mia and a visit to the Science Museum - a brilliant time was had by all.
